

Does a Bear Knit in the Woods?
October 22 – 24 (25)
Oak Hall
Brookland, Pennsylvania

The Fourth Does a Bear Knit in the Woods retreat will be held from Monday at 1 pm through Wednesday at 12 noon, with the option of staying though Thursday noon again at Oak Hall.

Time to gather for another knitting retreat at beautiful Oak Hall. Previous attendees have requested another Knitters' Choice. If you have a pattern which you would like to adapt for size or detail, I would be glad to help you with that.

The group in May requested the option of another day (see below). Bring your new projects, projects which need a jump start or re-do, learn a new technique. You are in charge....

We will start on Monday afternoon by introducing projects and planning the week. A wine and cheese hour will be followed by supper and knitting into the evening. Tuesday morning anyone interested can learn or review a moebius cast-on, then continue with your projects.

It has become a tradition to come to our home on one evening (Tuesday). My husband provides dinner and we can continue with knitting into the evening. Wednesday morning we'll continue until noon (or until noon on Thurs if you choose to stay).

If you are just learning, come and join us and build your confidence! As always, you are welcome to bring whatever projects you wish.

Monday, October 22 at 1 pm though Wednesday, October 23 or Thursday October 24 at noon.

Cost of the retreat is $200 ($275 for the extended option). That includes all instruction. rsvp by Friday, October 5 at linda@artsyknits.com or call 814-435-2660 (h) 412-656-4376 (c)
